

COMMENDATIONS

Tina Lutterman has expanded the PHS Culinary Arts program both in student enrollment and student engagement. Her classes provide PCSD events hospitality, the morning PHS "Bluejay Brew", and now the Community Veterans Day Dinner. Prior to this position, as an IJAG Advisor, she managed the logistics for the IJAG blood drive, the IJAG Cookie Walk, and the PHS Career Fair, earning State and National IJAG recognition. Respected by staff and students, she consistently provides servant leadership living "The Bluejay Way" bringing out the best in others by giving her best to others.

Students of the month:

Minasey Tewelde (12) Minasey's unwavering dedication to his studies is truly commendable, as he consistently invests his free periods to complete his homework and is always willing to help his fellow classmates. Also, he always has a great and contagious smile.

Melisa Ortega-Gonzalez (11) Melisa exemplifies the qualities of hard work, respectfulness, and responsibility through her unwavering commitment to her studies. Her dedication and respectful demeanor make her a great example of a BlueJay and a responsible leader in our school.

Jeremiah Matias (10) is the embodiment of a compassionate and caring individual who consistently extends a helping hand to those in need. His unwavering respectfulness and sense of responsibility make him the deserving Student of the Month, admired by both peers and teachers alike.

Drake Bridges (9) Drake's leadership style is characterized by quiet strength, always ready to lend a helping hand when it's needed most. His selfless act of staying late after a dance to assist with cleanup, without even being asked, exemplifies the kind of stand-up character that makes him our Student of the Month.

Congratulations to Yonas Andemichael for qualifying for the IHSAA State Cross Country Meet! Yonas ran in the state meet on Saturday, October 28th placing 110th with a time of 17:46.
